

Creating success: Applying for teacher training courses
24th November 2011, a.m. course
Central London

Gaining a place on a teacher training course is becoming increasingly competitive. It is the aim of this course to ensure you are fully prepared for applying for a place in order to maximise your success. The trainers leading this programme have spent many years in initial teacher education and have led admissions programmes in a range of routes into teaching.

Outcomes:

At the end of this course you will:

- be confident about which route into teaching is right for you;
- have improved your skills in preparing a strong application for your selected route into teaching;
- have identified elements you would wish to include in your personal statement;
- be aware of what providers are looking for during the interview process and understand how to respond to this;
- have explored responses to potential interview questions;
- have received support resources.

Programme:

8.45 Registration with refreshments
9.00 Welcome and introductions
Routes into teaching and funding opportunities
Understanding the selection process
Requirements and expectations for teacher training courses
Completing the application form
Writing a personal statement
Break with refreshments
Preparing for the interview day
Creating a positive first and lasting impression
Responding to interview questions
13.00 Close

Cost: £85 per delegate to include up to 3 follow-up support emails or phone calls, all course materials and refreshments during the morning.

How to apply:

Please use either the 'apply now' button on the courses page or email info@visionary-education.co.uk and we will email out the registration form.